September 2018

Dear Brethren in the Lord Jesus,

My prayer is that each of you be found rejoicing in the blessings of the Most High God, who is great throughout all time.

As is our practice, we are working and seeking those to whom we can preach. September 27-30 we conducted an evangelistic campaign with the help of the brethren from the Baptist Church in Pesquería, Nuevo León and Berea Baptist Church in Ciudad Victoria. On the 27th, we began with an open air service at the house of our brother Álvaro. His brother is still recovering from being run over six months ago and cannot get out, but now he was able to listen with us to the preaching of Brother Esven Porras, pastor of Berea Baptist Church (Iglesia Bautista Berea).

The following days, we dedicated ourselves to preaching from house to house and handing out tracts in the morning and afternoon, announcing the gospel to those whom the Lord permitted us an open door and also inviting them to the evening service to hear the preaching of Brother Marco Cantu Jr., pastor of the Baptist Church in Pesquería, Nuevo León. We thank the Lord that even after having finished these meetings, people continue to visit us, seeking out the address of the church because someone had left them with a tract at their house.

We continue to press forward. Pray for us. We are sending some pictures of this special meeting. May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. "The Lord is coming soon."

Serving the Lord,

Marco A. Cantú
